City and town officials regularly seek Greg Moreira’s seasoned legal counsel on critical and day-to-day matters, including strategic town planning, municipal contracts and transactions, risk mitigation, and policy development.

When not advocating for his clients, Mr. Moreira enjoys his beautiful family, plays midfield on the Portuguese Men’s National Team for Lacrosse, and enjoys playing guitar and piano.

Work with Clients

An experienced attorney of 25 years, Mr. Moreira has extensive experience representing municipalities, corporations, and high-net-worth individuals. He has successfully closed thousands of transactions, and zealously advocates in municipal law matters, class-actions, and other litigation for his clients. He also has developed a specialized interest and experience in cutting-edge artificial intelligence governance matters.

Professional Activities

Mr. Moreira is a member of the Massachusetts Bar Association.

Personal and Community Activities

Mr. Moreira is a Trustee of the Reading Youth Lacrosse Association and has coached hundreds of local children in lacrosse, soccer, wrestling, basketball, and baseball. He has served as an elected Town Meeting Member, earning valuable government-side experience in Massachusetts municipal practices.

Education

Mr. Moreira holds a Juris Doctorate from Boston University School of Law where he cross-registered with the Boston University Questrom School of Business to earn the law school’s Special Concentration in “Business Organizations and Finance.” He also earned BU Law School’s Dean’s Award for ranking number one in his class of 120+ in the area of "Professional Responsibility" (Legal Ethics), a distinction that was awarded to him by a state Supreme Court Justice.

Greg also holds a Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy from Suffolk University, cum laude, where he served as Class President, completed the Gleason P. Archer Fellowship Honors Program, and played Varsity Soccer.
